

Declaration of support for the new Association of Montenegrin Managers' Executive

CEC European Managers Executive Board proudly extends its heartfelt congratulations to Budimir Raickovic, who was nominated yesterday for President of the Association of Montenegrin Managers (AMM) for the mandate period from 2024 to 2028.

We stand firmly behind the decision of the Montenegrin Management Board, which was reached during the Assembly in Montenegro. We acknowledge the strong leadership and vision that Mr. Raickovic brings to the role and are confident in his ability to lead the AMM.

His reelection will ensure continuity and strategic alignment within the organisation.

We also extend our welcome to the rest of the AMM colleagues:

- Zoran Savic, Deputy President
- Slavoljub Popadić, President of the Assembly
- Nebojsa Scekcic, President of the CEO Forum
- Andjela Radosavovic, Executive Director
- Marijana Kadic, Vice President for Leadership and Business Women
- Branko Mitrovic, Vice President for Corporate Governance and Strategic Management

- PhD Vinko Nikic, Vice President for Economics and Finance
- Radovan Radulovic, Vice President for Entrepreneurship
- and members of the AMM Presidency, Vladan Tabas, Dusan Radusinovic and Arsenije Boljevic.

As a committed and united confederation, CEC European Managers is strongly committed to making the voices and demands of our members heard before the European institutions.

Through CEC European Managers, leaders from all European countries of all sizes are welcomed to make decisions and participate in influencing the politics that will shape the world of tomorrow.

Maxime Legrand, President
